SKIDMORE COLLEGE RETIREMENT PLANNING – BENEFITS FAQ

What is the age and service requirement for retirement?

Full- or part-time employees who cease employment at age 55 or older and have at least 15 years of full-time service are considered retirees of the College.

s per year, have at least 15 years of service at retirement, and have attained at least age re also considered benefit eligible retirees.

at group term life insurance benefits are provided to retirees?

eligible employee (as noted above) retirees between age 55 and 65, they are provided $50,000 group term life insurance. This coverage is provided at no cost and will cease at 65. The retiree has the option of purchasing this coverage directly from the insurance pany within 30 days of their 65 birthday. If they were covered by supplemental life rance as an active employee, they also have the option of purchasing the supplemental p term life insurance coverage directly from the insurance company at the time of their ement.

health care benefits provided in retirement?

ble employees (as noted above) who were hired on or before September 3, 2008, with the mum age and service requirements previously stated, are eligible for partial or full funding ealth care benefits in retirement.

employee may choose to waive healthcare coverage until age 60 or later, at which time may apply for coverage for themselves and eligible dependents. Upon electing erage, the College will contribute the percentage of premiums according to their age and is of service at the time of retirement. See below for chart of contributions.

ployees hired after September 3, 2008, are not eligible for health care coverage in ement. However, the College will make an annual contribution of an amount equal to 1% ase salary to one of our tax-deferred retirement plans to defray health care costs in ement for those employees hired after September 3, 2008.

dependents covered in post -retirement health care benefits?

ouse or qualified domestic partner of an eligible employee may be covered under the loyee's post-retirement healthcare coverage, as well as unmarried children up to age 19, to age 25 years of age if still dependent, and are a registered full-time student in an edited college or university.

It level of health care benefits is provided to retirees?

e an employee may retire at the age of 55, post-retirement health care benefits funded by College will begin at age 60 for those eligible according to the following schedule for the